ACLE Newsletter 01/2021

Dear ACLE members and ACLE friends,
Covid-19 was declared a pandemic little more than a year ago. While affecting the lives and livelihoods of many, it also suddenly changed the way we do university. ACLE has been silent, but not inactive. In the near pandemic future, we will continue working on several projects at the intersection between law & economics. Moreover, we will make the best out of the current circumstances and bring you closer to Amsterdam than you have ever been.

I hope you will enjoy reading about a selection of our activities in this newsletter and that you will join our online, borderless events – as academia should always be.
Until we can meet again, Yours truly,

Alessio Paccas
