

CALL FOR PAPERS

Young Talents in Law & Finance Conference

New trends in business, corporate and financial law

Amsterdam, October 27th-28th 2022

CLICK HERE TO SUBMIT YOUR PAPER

The Amsterdam Center for Law and Economics (ACLE), the Young Scholar Initiative (YSI) welcome submissions from young talents carrying out high-quality interdisciplinary research in the fields of Law & Finance, broadly construed.

The conference will take place on October 27th and 28th at the University of Amsterdam.

The conference is the role of intermediaries in modern economy. We welcome a broad range of interdisciplinary contributions in the field of Corporate and Business Law, Corporate Finance and Corporate Governance, Financial Regulation, FinTech, Artificial Intelligence, Blockchain Technologies and related areas. Empirical, theoretical and analytical contributions and equally welcomed, as well as papers with a political economy approach.

We invite submission by early career interdisciplinary scholars (indicatively, within 7 years from the PhD defense) on the subject matter.

The conference is supported by a network of young scholars engaged in law&finance topics who are based, among other, at the University of Amsterdam; Bocconi University; University of Zurich; Frankfurt University; Hamburg University; Leeds University; National University of Singapore; Oxford University; Tilburg University; Columbia Law School, Harvard Law School; and Yale Law School.

The selected presenters will receive feedback from a senior scholar of a university part of the network.

Confirmed keynote speakers

- Madison Condon (Boston University) – Personal Page
- Martin Schmalz (Oxford University) – Personal Page

Save the dates!

- September 1st: submission deadline;
- September 15th: notification of acceptance/rejection;
- October 1st: final version of the paper due

Practical Information

Please submit a paper or an extended abstract following this link follow this link. In case you submit an extended abstract, it should have a clearly defined problem statement, research question, methodology and (expected) findings.

Please, also indicate up to five keywords and JEL classification, if relevant.

In the application form, please indicate if you want to be considered eligible for a partial reimbursement of the accommodation and travel costs. The amount of the reimbursement of travel costs will depend on the area the presenter is located. PhD students and young academics with no travel budget from their home University will be prioritized.

The maximum amount of the reimbursement will be announced later, depending on funds availability.

For any enquiry about the contents and the organization of the conference, please send an email to e.d.martino@uva.nl.

About the Amsterdam Center for Law and Economics (ACLE)

The Amsterdam Center for Law and Economics (ACLE) is a joint initiative of the Faculty of Economics and Business and the Faculty of Law at the University of Amsterdam. The objective of the ACLE is to promote high-quality interdisciplinary research at the intersection between law and economics.

About YSI - Finance, Law and Economics WG

The Young Scholar Initiative is a community of 10407 students, young professionals, and researchers from across the globe pursuing new and critical ways of thinking about the economy. Within this community, the Finance, Law and Economics Working Group brings economists, lawyers and practitioners together to integrate Macroeconomics, Finance and legal studies in order to understand issues of financial stability, financial market reform and the future of the banking and payments systems.