

Martijn Snoep

Martijn Snoep specialises in EU and Dutch competition law. He is involved in transactional work, representing clients before the European Commission and the Dutch competition authority, or co-ordinating multi-jurisdictional filings throughout the world. In addition, he is a litigator before the European and Dutch courts, defending companies against allegations of antitrust infringements or in antitrust damage claims.

In 1997 Martijn worked on a number of US antitrust cases at Cravath, Swaine & Moore in New York.

Martijn's regular clients include Shell group, AKZO Nobel, Unilever, Philip Morris, ChevronTexaco, Coca-Cola, Rabobank, Gillette, Adidas, GlaxoSmithkline, Imation, AstraZeneca, Numico and KPN.

Martijn is chairman of the Dutch Association of Competition Law and a council member of the International League of Competition Law. He is also a member of the International Bar Association.

Martijn was mentioned in the most recent Global Competition "40 under 40", a list of the 40 best competition law practitioners in the world under 40 years. He was listed as a first tier leading individual in Chambers 2004-2005, Legal 500 2005 and PLC Global Counsel Competition Law 2005/05 and was listed in Who is Who Legal Competition 2005. Martijn is a regular speaker at international conferences and publishes in legal journals on procedural and substantive issues of competition law .
